"The Greatest Gift Ever"

When Mama C first walked through the doors of Planned Parenthood, she was carrying the weight of uncertainty. Her boyfriend, Papa C, had driven separately and waited outside-unable to join her inside. As Mama C was waiting to see if her insurance was approved to receive the abortion pills, something unexpected was unfolding on the sidewalk.

Papa C encountered a group of sidewalk advocates who offered him truth wrapped in compassion. They listened, shared words of hope, and began to pray with him. As they stood together in prayer, Mama C suddenly emerged from the building, got into her car, and drove away.

That moment marked the beginning of a powerful transformation.

The following week, Mama C and Papa C came to our clinic. She was still undecided and upset that her insurance was denied, and she would have to pay cash for the abortion pills. One of our trained advocates sat with her, listened to her, and provided gentle guidance. Mama C agreed to make an appointment for an ultrasound.

Our advocate met them at that appointment. They told her that they had sat down and gone over the information they received, and they were anxious to meet their baby. The ultrasound made it real-and gave them peace. They knew at that moment that they would choose life for their baby.

That day, they received a love box-a simple, thoughtful gift full of encouragement. Inside was a onesie that read "Greatest Gift Ever." Mama C smiled and said she couldn't wait to surprise her mom with it - her mom's birthday is at the end of September, and Mama C plans to include that onesie in a special birthday box.

Papa C connected with a male advocate, telling us that he was eager to return and meet with advocate D again. He said he knows that God saved his Today's abortion-seeking woman doesn't need to speak with a real person. She can go online, search "I want an abortion" and instantly be connected with services that will walk her - step by step - through the process by AI-powered chatbots. No emotion. No humanity. No one to offer truth.

Even more alarming? These search engines warn women about pro-life pregnancy centers - like ours - that might offer them hope, help, and real choices. We are labeled as dangerous because we want to save lives. The culture of death is going digital. And our mission has never been more important.

How do we fight this new battle?

We fight it the way we always have, through the power of the Holy Spirit, through prayer, through compassion and truth and through the unwavering support of believers like you.

We will not back down!

We will not be silent!

And we will not stop until every woman knows the truth: She is loved. Her baby is valuable. And baby, and he expressed his thankfulness to all who have been in this journey with them. And we say thank you to you, our donors-for giving us the gift of celebrating life alongside this beautiful family. Because of your generosity, we get to witness the greatest gift ever, LIFE.

there is hope. The battle is fierce - but our God is faithful. And with him we will not lose heart.

*Together for life,

The Heart Work We Carry

We often share stories of hope - of miracles, of women choosing life, and of God's hand at work. These testimonies uplift and remind us of the beauty in the battles we face. But there's another side we don't often talk about - the heavy, heart-wrenching stories of women who choose abortion.

In these moments, we are still called to be love. To be Jesus. To walk with women through deep grief, holding space for their pain and offering compassion, not condemnation.

In the last two weeks alone, we've had three abortion-minded clients. One mama (knowing our stance for life) returned to us after taking the first abortion pill that afternoon. She came seeking resources for her 7-month-old child and opened up about her decision. We immediately jumped into action, reminding her it's not too late - there is still hope and she can still fight for her baby. With tears in her eyes, she simply said, "I have to do this."

This work is not easy. It's not something we can walk away from at the end of the day and leave at the center. We carry the weight of these stories - the hope and the heartbreak. It is not light work. It is heart work. We ask for continued prayers. Pray that we will always love like Jesus. That we will always see like Jesus. That we will be his hands and feet - even in the heaviest moments.
